PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the sound foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

The telegraph informs us that the probabilities of the conviction of the Prisident, upon the impeachment articles, are weakening. A correspondent of the New York Herald made a similar statement in that paper a few days ago; and Data, the trustworthy Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, adds his opinion to the same effect. We very decidedly believe that the conviction or acquittal of the President will depend upon the result of the election in New Hampshire, which occurs on the 10th instant. The Senate of the United States will probably consider well the consequences of a deposition of the President, should the people of that State pronounce in favor of Democratic principles in the administration of the goveernment.

The question of impeachment has become an element in the struggle there, and we watch with anxiety every development or fact bearing on that struggle. We are glad to learn that the Hon. John G. Sinclair, the Democratic nominee, is confident of victory by a majority in excess of two thousand. A letter received in Washington from him says: "Every thing looks well and we are sure of the State by more than two thousand."

God grant that his anticipations may be fully realized!

The State Executive Committee, on yesterday, made the following appointments of committees. The committees in the Judicial Districts are charged with the duty of arranging for the holding of the District Conventions for the nomination of Solicitors, while the committees in the Congressional districts are to perform the same duties for the nomination of candidates for Congress. We state, here, for the benefit of those of our readers who may not have observed the change, that the only alteration made in the Congressional districts is the transfer of the county of New Hanover from the second to the third Congressional district.

We publish elsewhere a list of the counties composing the respective Judicial districts. The county of Catawba has been entirely overlooked by the Convention, so-called, in making up the Judicial districts.

We beg the gentlemen belonging to the various committees to give these matters their immediate attention. We can not get too quickly to work. The State must be canvassed, thoroughly canvassed, before the day of election. The responsibility is yours, gentlemen. The people will respond to your suggestions. Let them be made at once. The following are the committees:

1st. District.—Messrs. W. N. H. Smith, of Hertfort, M. L. Eure, of Gates, and W. A. Moore, of Chowan.

2nd. District.—George Howard, of Edgecombe, F. B. Satterthwaite, of Beaufort, and J. E. Moore, of Martin.

3rd. District.—C. S. Wooten, of Wayne, H. R. Bryan, of Craven, and John M. Perry, of Carteret.

5th. District.—Archibald McLean, of Cumberland, Thos. S. Ashe, of Anson, and W. L. Steele, of Richmond.

6th. District.—M. W. Ransom, of Northampton, Jo. J. Davis, of Franklin, Willis B. Jenkins, of Granville.

7th. District.—J. T. Morehead, Jr., of Guilford, Livingston Brown, of Caswell, H. A. London, Jr., Chatham.

8th. District.—J. M. Leach, of Davidson, W. M. Robbins, of Rowan, Rufus L. Patterson, of Forsythe.

11th. District.—Marcus Erwin, of Buncombe, N. Kelsey, of Madison, Robt. Penland, of Yancey.

12th. District.—Cassius Gudger, of Macon, W. L. Love, of Haywood, L. S. Gash, of Henderson.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

1st. District.—W. F. Martin, of Pasquotank, R. B. Peebles, of Northampton, P. T. Henry, of Bertie.

2nd. District.—Wm. Biggs, of Edgecombe, W. A. Allen, of Duplin, and Maj. Jno. Hughes, of Craven.

3rd. District.—D. C. Allen, of Brunswick, A. J. Jones, of Columbus, Rory McNair, of Robeson.

4th. District.—H. G. Williams, of Nash, T. D. Snead, of Johnston, W. J. Green, of Warren.

5th. District.—Levi M. Scott, of Guilford, S. S. Jackson, of Randolph, Frank C. Robbins, of Davidson.

The Wilmington Journal, under the caption of the "Height of the Ridiculous," says that the nomination of David L. Russell, Jr., of Brunswick, for judge of the fourth judicial district, would be a good joke if it was not so serious a matter. We concur in the opinion expressed by our cotemporary. The nomination was an outrage upon the people of that section. Mr. Russell has scarcely attained his twenty-fifth year and only obtained license to practice law during the present year. Grant him all the ability his particular friends claim for him and no sane man can believe, for a moment, that he is qualified for the position for which he has been nominated. Hitherto, in North Carolina, it has been the custom to place in such positions, gentlemen who, by a long and extensive practice, had acquired familiarity with the law. To this fact is attributable the high character maintained by our judiciary since the formation of the government, as well as the affectionate pride with which the people have ever regarded it.

But if the nomination of Mr. Russell be repugnant to good sense and dangerous to society, what shall be said of the nomination of Jacob W. Bowman for the same position in the eleventh judicial district? We are credibly informed that he is regarded as a lawyer of very inferior abilities and of scarcely any legal learning. We are informed also that he has never obtained license to practice in the Court of which the Radicals propose to make him the judge.

These nominations are deliberate insults to the intelligence of our people and should be indignantly rejected by the white men of the State at the polls. If these men should be elected, there will be no security for either life or property in the State.

The Wilmington Star thinks that Judge Buxton will decline the nomination tendered him by the Radical party.

THE HAPPY FAMILY,

—OR—

THE CAPITOL MONKEY SHOW!

[FORTIETH DAY—NIGHT SESSION.]

FRIDAY, Feb. 28, 1868.

The President announced Messrs. Durham, Daniel and Ashley as a committee on privileged questions.

The Tourgee made some inquiries concerning the enrollment of ordinances, but could get no information, as none of the committee were on the floor.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Mr. Sweet called up the report of the committee on the Legislative Department, for a third reading.

Sections 1st, 2nd and 3rd were adopted.

Mr. Sweet made a motion that the supplemental report be substituted for section 4.

The caption was adopted.

The re-districting of counties for the Senate was considered.

Mr. Sweet, chairman of the committee, said he would make no opposition to changes recommended by delegates specially concerned, but would not favor a new apportionment.

On his motion the first section was adopted.

Mr. Sweet moved that the county of Tyrrell be transferred to the 2nd District. Motion prevailed.

The 3rd to the 20th Districts, inclusive, were adopted.

Mr. Merrill moved that Granville and Person be divided and that each be entitled to a Senator.

Mr. Ragland and Cuffee Mayo objected.

Mr. Moore said that he would make no objection.

Hood, nigger, said that if divided, Granville with four thousand voters would have only one Senator, while Person, with two thousand voters would also have a Senator.

Mr. Merritt said that there was a large number of unregistered persons in his county.

Mr. Ragland stated that there were 1,000 in his county.

The amendment was rejected.

Transylvania was transferred to the 4th District.

The 4th section was then adopted.

Section 5 was then adopted.

Section 6 being read,

Mr. Mullican moved to amend by adding that members of the Legislature should receive $5 per day or less, for forty days, and $3 per day thereafter. Special sessions the same. The Speaker shall receive $8 per day and mileage.—The amendment was withdrawn.

The 5th, 6th and 7th sections were adopted.

Section 9th being read,

Mr. May moved a property qualification of $500 in value.

Mr. May said that the House of Commons should represent and protect persons, and the Senate the property of the State.

Mr. Holt called for the yeas and nays. The call was not sustained.

The amendment was defeated, and the section was then adopted.

Section 10 being read,

Mr. Abbott wished to know if the chairman of the committee had considered the propriety of changing the name House of Commons into House of Representatives. He said the former had been borrowed from England.

Mr. Sweet favored the change intimated by Mr. Abbott, because the words House of Commons were monarchial.

On Mr. Abbott's motion, the change was made.

Mr. Colgrove proposed a substitute for section 10, requiring that each representative shall be a qualified elector and reside in the county 12 months previous to the election. The amendment was accepted and adopted.

Mr. Foekner said the Convention was acting hastily. Under its vote a man could be a representative, though disqualified under the Howard Amendment.

The Tourgee said that this proved how wrong it was to allow rebels to hold office, and not to vote.

Section 14 was read.

The Tourgee moved to strike out all after the word "wedlock" down to the word "but" in the 5th line. The motion was withdrawn, and the section was adopted.

Sections 15 to 27 inclusive were adopted.

Section 28 being read,

The Sweet-scented delegate from Craven offered a substitute which was adopted, to the effect that the terms of Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall begin at the time of their elections, and that the terms of office of those first elected under this constitution shall terminate at the same time as if they had been elected at the first election following.

Mr. Mullican's amendment, offered as a distinct section, was laid on the table.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, proposed a section that members of the Legislature during their terms of office shall not be eligible to any office in the gift of the Legislature. [Good for Mack!]

Laid on the table, on motion of Hayes (sable parliamentarian) from Halifax. Yeas, 41; nays, 23.

Section 29 was adopted.

Section 30 was amended, by adding a proviso requiring the Legislature to meet in fifteen days after the ratification of the constitution. The ordinance then passed. Yeas, 72; nays, 4. Absent or not noting, 44.

On motion of Splay-foot French, of Bladen, the Scallawags and Gorillas were remanded to their cages.

THE CAPITOL MONKEY SHOW,

OR

The "Smelfangus-Mundungus" Konvenshun.

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

FORTY-FIRST DAY.

SATURDAY, Feb. 28.

The North Carolinian of the previous day was read and laid on the table for future reference.

A document was received from the renowned Col. (!) C. L. Harris [who wants to be Superintendent of the State Public Works, and who really doesn't know the difference 'twixt a forty horse steam engine and the Carolinian printing press] containing the ber-ludy resolutions adopted by the odoriferous scalawags recently assembled in Tucker Hall: That it is the sense of this Convention that rebels should not be indiscriminately enfranchised.

Johnny McDonald, of Chatham—ev-e-ry time, made a motion to deposit the communication on the table.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, demanded the ayes and noes on "Mack's" motion.

The Tourgee arose to a question of privilege. The rebel reporter of the disloyal North Carolinian, had denounced him as a horse thief in this morning's issue of that infernal journal. [The galled jade winces.]

Nobody coming to the Tourgee's relief, a vote was taken on the memorial from the Radical-Nigger Nominating Konvenshun.

The call for the ayes and noes was renewed by Mr. Graham, of Orange, but the house not concurring, the motion to lay on the table prevailed.

Johnny McDonald, of Chatham, "riz" up on his hind feet to a question of privilege. He said that that inevitable rebel reporter of the rebel North Carolinian, had characterized him as a Jack-ass on sundry occasions, and, no longer ago than this morning, he had made a similar classification of his genus. Since the Convention would not defend the sanctity of "diligita," he felt bound to say, in the name of old Chatham forever! that if the Convention wanted to see a sweet trio of sure-enough asses, just let him send for Lee, the slanderous reporter of the North Carolinian, Bernard, ("cousin Bernard") of the Wilmington Star, and Hanes, of the Old North State. [Poor, foolish Mack! to suppose that you can elevate yourself by denouncing gentlemen!

Why Johnny did'st thou never pop
Thy head into a tin-man's shop?
Then Johnny did'st thou never see
('Tis but by way of simile.)
A squirrel spend his little rage
In jumping round a rolling cage?
The cage, as either side turns up,
Striking a ring of bells a-top;
Moved in the orb, pleased with the chimes,
The foolish creature thinks he climbs:
But here or there, turn wood or wire,
He never gets two inches higher.

PRIOR (perhaps).

The house not sympathising with Mack on his question of privilege, he then introduced a memorial, signed by many afflicted subjects in the empire of Chatham, asking relief. Under the rules it went under the table.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. Ellis requested the house to defer the special order for the consideration of his resolution of yesterday, concerning postage.

The Radicals unanimously (of course) refused to postpone. [These jackals and harpies, who are feasting on the life blood of poor, prostrate, dying Carolina, have no idea of giving up their stealings while the Konvenshun remains in session.]

The Suffrage question being the special order, Heaton, of Ohio, asked a postponement to discuss the Judicial report.

JUDICIAL REPORT.

Mr. Rodman moved a reconsideration of the 20th section, and the house concurred.

Mr. R. moved to amend by striking out the words "allowing the Clerk of the Superior Court to appoint a Coroner" and insert "in case of a vacancy existing from any cause, in any of the offices created by the section, the Clerk of the Superior Court may fill the same for the unexpired term."

Greasy Sammy Watts, who aspires muchly to be Judge Watts, concurred. He thought it decidedly better to leave their appointment to the clerk of the Superior Court, than to have to go roaming all over the country looking for a Judge [a greasy, slippery, watery judge, like Watts.]

The Tourgee entered his "sollum protest."

Watts then made a motion to amend by leaving the appointment to the county commissioner.

The Tourgee moved to have the Watts' amendment printed. Adopted.

Abbott, the New Hampshire Quaker, moved that the report of the committee on homesteads be taken up.

Adopted, and the report read.

Rich, from some Yankee State—we can't learn which, moved to insert "five" in place of "three" in 2nd line.

Mr. Hodnett opposed.

The question being put on the amendment, resulted, ayes 53, noes 23.

The Tourgee moved to strike out all after the word "debt" in 5th line, 1st section.

He protested against immediate action and desired a small spatium temporis to cogitate.

Abbott, Shaker, said the spirit moved him to go liberally as far as he went, and he went for a homestead exempting $5000.

Hood, the parsonic Egytian, formerly of Ashango-land, now of Cumber-land, prayed that the amendment might pass.

Jones, the Quixotic Jones of Washington, poised his lance in favor of a liberal homestead, one that would protect the poor and the oppressed, the widows and orphans. [Our knight of the Sorrowful Figure follows on right after his illustrious prototype of La Mancha.]

Mr. Morton, of Stanly, then obtained the floor, and relieved himself of a speech of an hour's length, which, when ended, was a relief to every one in the hall. As near as we could ascertain, from his rambling and almost unintelligible effort, he favored the amendment of the Tourgee to strike out, and was also in favor of a retrospective homestead. He said "North Ka-lina was in a 'bad way,' and the people were not responsible for their debts." [We have never heard the equal of this speech, and we confess our inability to do the speaker justice. It was such a speech as one seldom has an opportunity of listening to—in an ordinary life time. The "Harp of a thousand Strings," the "whang-doodle," the speech of the Mingo Chief, or the effort of Johnny McDonald before the late Republican nominating convention would not begin to compare with it. When he arose and spread his carefully written pages before him, and began his speech, every muscle in his system quivered, and his voice faltered as if his tongue was palsied. It was evidently a momentous crisis in his life, and we regret to add, Morton was unequal to the occasion. The Radical scallawags evidently regarded the effort as a very dry joke.

The dusky Lothario, of Wake, near whom the speaker stood, apparently felt the whole weight of the argument, for he settled down in his seat, and, after the fashion of a mud turtle, proceeded to draw in his head until his top-knot was barely discernible above his collar bone; the Tourgee looked 45 degrees meaner than usual, and the whole herd of his political confreres, dropping their under-jaws, cast furtive glances at one another, while the "diligite" continued to articulate "gen-tle-men" and to explain the "figgers set down" in his book.]

Johnny McDonald said he was for relief every time, come in whatever shape it might. He was from Chatham county and did'nt care who "knowed" it. Chatham county had told him to "git" relief, and if the Convention would'nt give it to 'em, "Jineral" Canby might begin to "expand" his army at once—he need'nt "contract, nary time" for there would be another war, "shore."

He was going on to say something about the "freedmen" having no debts to pay, when

Galloway, Duke of Brunswick, interrupting, said: I am tired, Mr. President of hearing sentiments like those just uttered by the gentleman from Chatham. It's all bosh—rigmarole—a tub for the public whale, and such being the case I would suggest to the gentleman the propriety of abreviating his remarks, aye, drying up immediately. Mack wilted, and up to the hour of adjournment remained as "mum" as a mummy.

Heaton, of Ohio, thought the amendment savored too much of repudiation.

Hood, Egyptian, said that with all proper deference for the sublimated judgment of the gentleman from Ohio, he was piously inclined to believe that there wasn't the slightest argument in his idea.

Abbott approved the amendment. He was opposed to repudiation, but favored relief. As to whether it had a retrospective or prospective application, could be but decided by the courts. The courts, he said, were the great reservoir and dispensers of law and equity, and he preferred that it should be left to them.

The Tourgee said that Abbott took the correct view of the matter.

Mr. Nicholson didn't want any doubts in the case. He would favor a retrospective homestead in certain cases. In any event, he was unwilling to fling the people a stone, when they clamored for bread.

The vote was then put with the following result: Ayes 50, noes 35.

AYES—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Aydlott, Baker, Blume, Bryan, Carey, Carter, Chillson, Congleton, Dickey, Etheridge, Fisher, French, of Chowan, George, Graham, of Montgomery, Gully, Ganter, Hayes, of Robeson, Hood, Hyman, Kinney, Lee, Legg, Long, Mann, May, Mayo, Merritt, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Morton, Murphy, Newsom, Parks, Peterson, Ragland, Ray, Read, Rich, Robbins, Rodman, Smith, Stillwell, Taylor, Tourgee, Turner, Watts, Welker, Williamson.

NOES—Messrs. Barnes, Benbow, Bradley, Candler, Colgrove, Cox, Duckworth, Ellis, Eppes, Forkner, French of Rockingham, Fullings, Gahagan, Garland, Glover, Graham, of Orange, Grant, of Northampton, Harris, of Franklin, Hayes, of Halifax, Heaton, Highsmith, Hodnett, Hollowell, Ing, Jones, of Caldwell, King, of Lincoln, Logan, McCubbins, Nicholson, Parker, Petree, Pierson, Rhodes, Rose, Sanderlin, Stilly, Sweet, Teague, Tucker.

The 1st section was then adopted as amended.

The 2nd section was then read.

Hood moved to strike out all after the word "debt" in the 9th line, to the end of the section.

Jones, of Caldwell, opposed.

The Tourgee asked that the question be divided, and moved to amend the amendment, by striking out after the word debt, to the end of the 10th line.

There was a division of the question, and the motion to strike out was adopted.

The question then recurred on Hood's amendment to strike out all after the word "Constitution" in the 10th line. He maintained that a homestead liable to mortgage, was no protection whatever.

The vote was then taken on the amendment and prevailed.

The Tourgee moved to insert after the word "debt" in the amended section, "provided, that no sale or mortgage of the homestead shall be of any legal force in case the owner of the homestead is in debt to the amount of one-third the value of the homestead, unless by the consent of the creditors, and the consent of his wife, signified on her private examination before a Clerk of the Superior Court of the State."

Mr. Graham, of Orange, was opposed to making any man a slave in North Carolina. He was opposed to tying up a man's homestead so that he could not sell it. He favored a liberal homestead. The proposition would effectually kill a poor man's credit.

Hood moved to amend as follows: "Provided, that the homestead may be exchanged for other property of the same nature by the owner thereof, without the voluntary consent of his wife, signified on her private examination before a Judge of some Court of this State."

The vote was taken on Hood's amendment and prevailed.

The question then recurred on the adoption of the section.

Candler, the Buncombe baby, declared that if a retrospective homestead clause was engrafted in the Constitution, he would go home, if the Lord spared him, to Buncombe, and "go it heavy" against ratification.

Abbott, of New Hampshire—I call the gentleman to order. He is trying to bully this body. [Bully for the "ginral."]

Candler—Surely Mr. Chairman, this mighty convention cannot be bullied by a baby!

I simply desire to say, in language most pacific, that I cannot endorse a retrospective, repudiating homestead clause.

Hood—but didn't you vote for relief?

Candler—No sir-ee, Egyptian-man! I went against them all the time. And now I warn you—I forewarn this Convention, that the West will spurn and spit upon a repudiating Constitution.

Abbott "biled;" he shook like a Shaker; he poured out the bottles of his rhetoric thusly: I hold in unalloyed unmitigated contempt, the patriotism of the individual who can stand on the floor in this hour of thick-thronging peril, and attempt to bullirag this (bully) body.

Candler—I do myself the honor to reciprocate, with compound interest, the sentiments of contempt expressed by the delegate from New Hanover. My name is Candler. On the hills of Buncombe my fayther feeds his sheep, [a frugal swain.] I am a straight out and outer Radical Republican, but

"Under no party's arbitrary sway,
I cleave to truth when Candler leads the way."

Once more—yet once again, I warn this Convention to look out for breakers.

Harris, nigger of Wake, informed the Buncombe baby that if he put himself in the way of the march of events he would get run over and "done for."

Heaton offered a resolution, requesting Pacha Canby to carry out the Relief ordinance in his dominions, which was adopted.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Impeachment Articles.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.

The impeachment articles are as follows:

First. For the removal of Stanton with intent to violate the constitution and laws.

Second. For the appointment to the position of Secretary of War, with like intent, of one Lorenzo Thomas.

Third. For conspiring with Thomas and others unknown to hinder Stanton, by intimidations and threats, from executing his office.

Fourth. For conspiracy with Thomas and others to prevent and hinder the execution of the tenure-of-office bill.

Fifth. For the appointment of Thomas while the Senate was in session.

Sixth. For conspiracy with Thomas to seize the property of the United States contrary to the act of July, 1861.

Fourth. For conspiracy with Thomas and others to eject Stanton from the War Office.

Eighth. For conspiracy to take possession of the property of the United States in the War Office.

Ninth. For giving a letter to Thomas authorizing him to take possession of the War Office.

Tenth. For persuading Gen. Emory that the law required orders from the President and Secretary of War come to through the General of the Armies.

The House reserves the privilege of presenting other charges to sustain impeachment and replying to the President's answer to the above ten charges.

Nine charges simply ring the changes on Stanton's removal. The tenth applies to Gen. Emory's interview, in which the President asked "Am I to understand that the President of the United States cannot give you an order but through the General-in-Chief, or Gen. Grant?"

After saying "Yes," Gen. Emory withdrew.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.

Senate—The manner of proceedure in impeachment cases was under consideration all day. Considerable difference of opinion in regard to details manifested, but repeated motions to adjourn were defeated by decisive majorities, showing a disposition to push the matter to completion.

House—After private business, the impeachment articles were introduced and discussed to adjournment.

Resolved, 1st. That a convention of the white people of Alabama, without distinction of old political parties, opposed to negro domination and Radical misrule in the government, be called to meet at the city of Montgomery on the 1st Monday of June, for the purpose of taking measures to sustain and co-operate with the National Democrats of the Union in the approaching election for President and Vice President of the United States.

Resolved, 2nd. That if in the opinion of the Conservative State Executive Committee events should transpire to render it expedient or necessary that the said State Convention be called at an earlier day, it shall have the power to convoke it.

Resolved, 3rd. That five citizens be appointed to repair to Washington and to remain there as long as is necessary, to represent the political interests of this people and to keep our friends of the North advised of the state of affairs in Alabama.

Resolved, 4th. That the friends of that cause be earnestly advised to maintain an active organization in every town and county of the State, with a view to be ready to support white supremacy and a constitutional government under whatever contingencies may arise.

Peter M. Orr, of Madison; J. J. Grier, of Morgan; Lee Parsons, of Talladega; H. T. Randall, of Dallas, and John Forsythe, of Mobile, were appointed the committee under the third resolution.

JUDGES PEARSON AND READE.

We publish below the correspondence between the committee, appointed by the State Executive Committee to inform Judges Pearson and Reade of their nomination, and those gentlemen. A similar communication was sent to the Hon. Wm. H. Battle, but he, having left the city, has not yet signified his acceptance of the nomination. We believe that he will respond favorably:

Hon. R. M. Pearson:

SIR:—The Executive Committee of the Conservative party, now assembled in this City, have nominated you for the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

Hoping that you will accept the same, we are,

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
D. G. FOWLE,
R. C. BADGER,
M. A. BLEDSOE,
For the Committee.

[A similar letter was addressed to Judge Reade.]

Gentlemen:—I accept the nomination of which you have just informed me. You are aware that I have already accepted the nomination of the Convention of the Republican party. As Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, should the people of the State elect me to fill that responsible station, I shall feel honored by this concurrence of opinion in regard to my efforts as a Judge for more than half a life time, and, without reference to party affiliations, to which, as a Judge, I have never yielded, I shall, to the best of my ability, endeavor to discharge the duties of the office, without fear or favor.

Yours very respectfully,
R. M. PEARSON

MESSRS. FOWLE, BLEDSOE AND BADGER, Committee.

Gentlemen:—I have just received your letter, informing me of the nomination of my name, by the Executive Committee of the Conservative party, for election to the seat which I now occupy upon the Supreme Court Bench. I am honored by this mark of your confidence in me as a Judge, and accept the nomination, without reference to any party affiliation.

I am nothing but a Judge. If elected by the people, I shall, as I always have done, declare the law to the best of my ability, and do equal justice to the rich and the poor, to the State and to individuals, without fear and without partiality.

Thanking you for the kind terms of your communication,

I am, very respectfully, &c.,
E. G. READE.

Riding on a Rail.

Some of the carpet-baggers, who figured conspicuously as "diligits" in the Radical State Convention, had quite a difficult time getting home, we understand. They took passage southward upon the North Carolina railroad. The Conductor, as in duty bound, demanded their fare, when, sad to tell, they confessed to a total want of "stamps." The Conductor threatened to stop his train and put them off the cars, and was about proceeding to put his threat into execution, when a white delegate interposed and prevented, by paying the whole bill. Greatly relieved by his kindness, they exhibited their gratitude and affection by joining him in a negro minstrel performance.

The Judicial Districts.

For the information of our readers we publish so much of the report of the committee on the Judicial Department as provides for the division of the State into judicial districts, and also the counties composing the several districts:

SEC. 12. The State shall be divided into twelve judicial districts, for each of which a Judge shall be chosen, who shall hold a Superior Court in each county in said District, at least twice in each year, to continue for two weeks, unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

SEC. 13. Until otherwise altered by law, the following shall be the Judicial Districts:

First District—Currituck, Perquimans, Hertford, Camden, Chowan, Bertie, Pasquotank, Gates.

Second District—Tyrrel, Beaufort, Edgecombe, Hyde, Martin, Washington, Pitt.

Third District—Craven, Greene, Wayne, Carteret, Onslow, Wilson, Jones, Lenoir.

Fourth District—Brunswick, Columbus, Robeson, New Hanover, Bladen, Duplin, Sampson.

Twelfth District—Henderson, Macon, Cherokee, Transylvania, Jackson, Haywood, Clay.

Settled.

The Hon. (?) Mister Settle, late Capt. Tom. Settle, C. S. A., "draws rations" at the Yarboro'. This Settles that matter.

There were one hundred cases on the criminal docket of Edgecombe County Court, which ended its session on yesterday. The expense incident to the confinement of these criminals is very heavy, amounting to more than one thousand dollars for the last quarter.

Messrs. Henry T. Clark, L. R. Cherry, Wm F. Lewis, Kenneth Thigpen and Jas. F. Jenkins, were re-elected the special court for the county of Edgecombe, at the recent session of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions.

Behind the Scenes—Before the Nomination.

Enter X. P. G., Font, and the Arkansas Bummer.

FONT.—I won't stand it! I have disgraced my blood and my-self, wallowed in all manner of filth, rolled on the ball, pushing and pulling—and now I am to have nothing, eh? I must go to Congress.

X. P. G.—Softly, Font! It is not our fault that you were born a gentleman. I admit it has been your ruin.

FONT.—Gentle or simple, I must live. I must have bread. Here are corn field hands, at eight dollars a day; and here am I, little better than a beggar.

X. P. G.—That is not our fault neither, my irascible friend. Why didn't you manage to be a corn-field nigger? then there would have been some hope for you. The bottom rail is on top, you know, now.

FONT.—Well, be it so; but let the gander have some sauce as well as the goose. Are you a nigger?

X. P. G.—Well—my dear fellow, I hardly know, myself—about 'alf and 'alf—I believe—nigger in-wardly—and not remarkably white outside. Unfortunately for you, you have only japanned your hide—and the gentleman sticks out sometimes.

FONT.—I suppose that precious Ethiopian, Harris, is to go to Congress, is he? Is that your plan?

X. P. G.—Why, not exactly. But he is to be nominated.

FONT.—And what then; wont he go?

X. P. G.—You don't know the ropes, Font. Our Republican friends at Washington love him well enough—at a respectful distance, but are by no means ambitious of sitting by his side on those soft velvet cushions in the Capitol. Besides, it would raise such a row all over the North that it wont do, Font, it wont do. They are willing enough that the negroes should be our equals, even our superiors, but to be theirs, why that's a horse of another color.

FONT.—Why, then, is he to be nominated?

X. P. G.—Green again, as usual. Font, you are the merest baby in politics. He is to be nominated to please his race, and it may as well be spoken, to please himself.

FONT.—And what then? What good will that do?

X. P. G.—What then? Why, "in an eloquent speech he will decline the honor and retire; and this grand act of self-sacrifice will be greeted with emotions of pride for the nobility of the man's (Jeames's, that is) soul." And I am to say so in my paper, and add: "James H. Harris was rewarded by only a millioneth part by the warm expressions of the feelings of those present on the occasion. Let him go up higher and higher—he is worthy of the confidence of any people and is an honor to American citizenship." Here it is, all written down.

FONT.—Well, all O. K. But what good will that do our sable friend and brother? Will it butter his bread? That's the question that comes home to a man's bosom, whether he is white or black. You have spoilt him for work. How shall he eat?

X. P. G.—He shall eat bananas in Hayti, as Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary duly commissioned and accredited from the purest and the best government that the sun ever shone on. "Let him go up higher and higher," that's the word. You shall see it all in my paper. Do you take, Font?

FONT.—Take! Holden, you are fooling that nigger! Be a man! and pay him something handsome. There is a fund for patriotic purposes, such as those we have both had our fingers in—that strong box. We know something on that interesting subject. Deal fairly with Jeames, the Ethiopian; though you have been confoundedly stingy in dealing out the greenbacks to me.

X. P. G.—Jeames, the Ethiopian, shall not suffer while I have control of that fund. Pu' the Colonel, here—not me, Font—has promised to take him on his shoulders, with the rest of us, and tramp to Washington City to urge on Congress his appointment to the Haytian mission, until they consent to give it, "if for no better reason, to get clear of his importunity."

FONT.—Ah ha! I smell a mice? Deweese, have you joined with Holden in fooling this fellow?

DEWEESE.—Waal, I kind o' think I shall. I have a considerable of a hankerin' that way. I've been a sort of a bummer, you know, on the Mississippi, and I'm monstrous 'cute at makin' a livin' by quarterin' on the enemy.

FONT—But this is not quartering on the enemy. We are "truly loyal," and the offices ought to be ours.

D.—Yours! ha! ha! Look around you, my most loyal friend, and see how it is. Ought you not to be grateful to your "best benefactors"? And hence can you better show your gratitude to your kind protectors than by giving them all the—loaves and fishes? I say, be-ow can ye?

FONT.—Mercy on us! what abominable pronunciation—worse than Choctaw Indian! Gratitood, quoth 'a. Holden, what is gratitude? Here I've been doing all sorts of dirty business for years—working—working—pushing and pulling—and not one poor crumb yet, in the way of office! What is gratitude? Is it not a kind and grateful appreciation of past favors? Tell me, thou expert.

X. P. G.—Appreciation of a past—fiddlesticks! Font, put it down in your new dictionary, and in your practice too, as I have—that "gratitude is a keen appreciation of favors to come."

FONT.—All right. And now, what future favors, expected or hoped for, my astute lexicographer, are to wake up that most delicious feeling in me, eh?

X. P. G.—Really, Colonel Polyglot, we—are—at—a—loss—to—know. You are a mighty willing little feller, but you are guilty of such ridiculous short-comings, and are in truth such an odd, unclassifiable non-descript, that we are puzzled to know where to place you. But, work away! push away! my boy, till I'm Governor again; and then—we shall see what we shall see—as the Frenchman said.

(Font groans; the X. P. G. grins; the valiant Bummer blows his nose, wipes his fingers in a princely, familiar way on the X. P. G's new broad cloth breeches; and—exeunt omnes.)

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

The Dying Maiden.

Down in the gale where the gurgling stream
Ripples amid the ferny leaves,
'Neath the willow branch where the evening beam
Gladdens the earth with its mellow gleam—
There, mother, make my grave.

Let the greenest grass adorn my bed,
And the wild flowers cluster around:
The robin will sit on the spray o'er my head,
And a requiem sing for the lonely dead
Beneath the grassy mound.

For oft, when the sun had sunk to rest,
And bright stars enlit the sky,
On its banks we stray'd alas! too blest;
But he fell afar in the toubl'd West—
Ah! what can I do but die!

As I slept last night, a spirit stood
Before my startled gaze;
On his breast were the gory gouts of blood—
I heard it drop on the floor of wood
As I look'd in wild amaze.

Slowly he passed through the cottage door,
And waved his ghostly hand;
I thought the wind from the stilly moor
Breathed to my soul in accents pure—
Come to the spirit land.

* * * * *

Like the fading sound of a fairy lute,
Her sweet tones died away;
The silvery tongue is forever mute,
But her gentle love will bear its fruit
Through all eternity.

In a soldier's grave his form is laid,
Down by Potomac's tide,
But his spirit walks thro' the forest glade,
When the moon shines bright, and the gentle maid
Is ever by his side.

And maidens sit in the haunted vale
At eve by her quiet grave;
With tearful eyes they repeat the tale,
While mournfully sighs the evening gale,
And sadly the willows wave.

Napoleon the Third.

John Esten Cook is writing for the Southern Society some interesting recollections of a visit to Washington Irving at Sunny Side. Of Louis Napoleon and the Empress Eugenie, Irving spoke with marked interest and pleasure. "What a remarkable person Louis Napoleon is," said he; "a dashing fellow! It seems strange that he should have been here where we are standing. Yes! in this very place. He used to stop here on his way up to West Point, when he was in America, long before he became Emperor. I supposed he went up to examine the fortifications. He was accompanied by a young French Count of my acquaintance, who brought him. They frequently breakfasted with me, and I remember the girls liked the young Count the best. The Prince was too silent and reserved, and looked gloomy—seldom opening his lips, but perfectly well-breed. And now he is Emperor! What a strange world this is! I knew the Empress when she was a child—little Eugenie de Montijo—and have often had her on my knee in Madrid. Her father was the Count de Teba; when his brother died he took the name of Montijo. Afterwards I saw Eugenie again. She was a fine, dashing girl, with a beautiful figure and fine bust and shoulders. She used to appear at the balls in Spain in the character of female mousquetaire. I was in Washington lately, and Calderon—I knew him well in Spain—said: 'Good heavens, Irving! Just to think! Little Eugenie Montijo empress!—hump, hump, hump.'"

A Remarkable Story.

During the year 1864, when the hostile forces were struggling for the supremacy in and around Winchester, Mr. ——— went to Major Parsons, United States Provost Marshal, and applied for a safeguard. General Fessenden was called to fill the demand, which he did by detailing for this duty Mr. John ———, of the Second New York cavalry, to whom he issued imperative orders to remain until he was relieved by proper authority. W. stood manfully by his post. The tide of battle surged about him, but his was a charmed life, for he had that authority which saved him from molestation by the "rebs." The war closed, but with it came no order to the sentinel, and faithful to the trust confided to him, he is still at the post of duty! The case has been reported to the proper authorities, and Mr. W. will doubtless soon be excused from further safeguard duty. That he will be able to draw full pay up to the present time has, we learn, been conceded by competent military authority.—Winchester Times

A Good Hit.

In the House of Representatives on Wednesday, Mr. Mungen asked leave to offer a resolution reciting that the welfare of the country, and especially of the dominant party at this particular juncture, imperatively demand the admission of at least one State under the reconstruction acts; that it had been ascertained that many of the Alabama freedmen had deposited their ballots in the post-offices, contrary to the instructions of the military commander; and declaring that it is highly improper that such ballots should be lost, and that, without further delay, Alabama be admitted into the Union; and that any member of any party, "or any other man," voting against the resolution be adjudged guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors, and be immediately impeached.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, interrupted the reading of the resolution, and Mr. Chanler objected to its being received.

Gov. Geary's False Telegram.

A Harrisburg letter in the New York World says: "I confidently assert, without fear of contradiction, that not one man, much less one company of soldiers, has offered his services to Gov. Geary. The report is a base falsehood, manufactured out of whole cloth, and an insult and an outrage to the people of Pennsylvania."

The following is rather severe on the clergy, but will do for a fair repartee. It is attributed to Dean Swift:

"Says Celia to a reverend Dean,
'What reason can be given,
Since marriage is a holy thing,
That there is none in heaven?'
'There are no women there,' he cried,
She quick returns the jest,
'Women there are, but I'm afraid
They cannot find a priest.'"

The Philadelphia Age comments as follows on Gov. Geary's dispatch:

"There is no possible excuse for his dispatch. It is not even shielded by truth. No sensible man in the State believes a word of it. He telegraphed a falsehood to Cameron, just as sure as he run at Snickersville. He has excited nothing but ridicule and contempt—nothing more.

Who knows himself a braggart,
Let him fear this, for it will come to pass,
That every braggart will find himself an ass.

Something momentous happened in Philadelphia yesterday. The "trooly loil" hoisted a flag. On the folds thereof appeared the letters S. P. A. And so, under the lead of Col. Forney, or Gen. Grant, or some other mighty man of war, marches forth the Small Potato Army. S. P. A. is the countersign and the watchword. Put none but reconstructed Americans of African descent on guard to-night.—World.

At weddings among the "ton" in New York, it is fashionable for gentlemen to kiss the bride, and all the ladies to kiss the groom. At a recent marriage in Grace Church, a bashful young groom was compelled to submit to the salutations of all the female attendants, numbering, old women included, upwards of two hundred.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.
